

Rachel Surridge Leadership Award

Application for The Rachel Surridge Leadership Award

One (1) $1,500 award will be presented annually

Please Submit by June 1st via email to juniors@milkingshorthorn.com

Please email juniors@milkingshorthorn.com with any questions regarding the application.

Any youth successfully completing project work in the American Milking Shorthorn Junior Society is eligible to participate in the Rachel Surridge Leadership Award.

Each year the application will be sent to a selected Judging committee and each contestant will appear before three judges for a twenty-minute interview at the National Milking Shorthorn Convention in June. The winner will be awarded the Rachel Surridge Leadership Award at the annual awards banquet.

Rules and Eligibility

1. The Rachel Surridge Leadership Award will be presented as one $1,500 award to an eligible candidate each year.
2. Each candidate must be a member in good standing of a state Junior Milking Shorthorn Association, if there is one in his/ her state; and be a paid junior member of the American Milking Shorthorn Junior Society.
3. A candidate must be between the ages of 16 and 21 as of January 1st and must have carried a Milking Shorthorn project for at least one year.
4. A committee of three judges is selected to interview eligible candidates at the National Milking Shorthorn Convention in June.
5. Applicants must be present to interview.
6. Recipients of the award will receive an award from AMSJS.
7. A completed application for the contest must be submitted no later than June 1st of the current year.

I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the information contained here is correct and is my own work.

Applicant Signature _____

Date _____

Rachel Surridge Leadership Award

Information

Name:

Permanent Address:

Current or School Address (if different):

Email Address:

Phone:

Birthdate: Age (as of Jan. 1):

Parents/Guardian:

School or Current Employment:

Graduation Date:

College Major (if applicable):

Farm Prefix:

Years of Membership in AMSJS:

Rachel Surridge Leadership Award

Milking Shorthorn Story

On a separate sheet, please write your “Milking Shorthorn Story”

The Milking Shorthorn Story should be no more than three pages, font 12, Arial or similar, and double-spaced. The response should be prepared carefully and neatly, and present a true, easy-to-read story of the contestant and registered Milking Shorthorns he or she owns and has developed. Material should be accurate, complete, and records submitted truly.

Please answer:

1. How did you begin with Milking Shorthorns?
2. What is your role on your home farm?
3. Describe the duties your responsible for directly with your animals both at home and at the shows.
4. What are your future plans in the dairy/beef industry?
5. What activities are you involved in outside of Milking Shorthorns?

Application Questions

On a separate sheet answer the following appropriate application questions for your age division.

The application should be no more than 500 words, font 12, Arial or similar, and double-spaced.

The response should be prepared carefully and neatly, and present a true, easy-to-read story of the contestant and registered Milking Shorthorns he or she owns and has developed. Material should be accurate, complete, and records submitted truly.

Age 9-15 as of January 1st of the current year

1. If money was not a problem, what cow family would you want to have offspring out of? Why?
2. How do you incorporate the National Milking Shorthorn motto “Breeding for Tomorrow” in your herd?

Age 16-21 as of January 1st of the current year

1. What traits do you feel are important to focus on when breeding your Milking Shorthorns to make them competitive in today’s dairy industry?
2. How do you incorporate the National Milking Shorthorn motto “Breeding for Tomorrow” in your herd?
3. How can we use new technology to promote the Milking Shorthorn breed and the American Milking Shorthorn Society?

Rachel Surridge Leadership Award

Highlights of Activities

1. List organizations, offices held & awards in dairy activities. (Limit responses to space provided.)

Year	Organization	Office/Award
EX. 2022	American Milking Shorthorn Junior Society	National Junior President

2. List organizations, offices held & awards in other activities. (Limit responses to space provided.)

Year	Organization	Office/Award
2021	Smith Central High School	Varsity Football Letter Award

